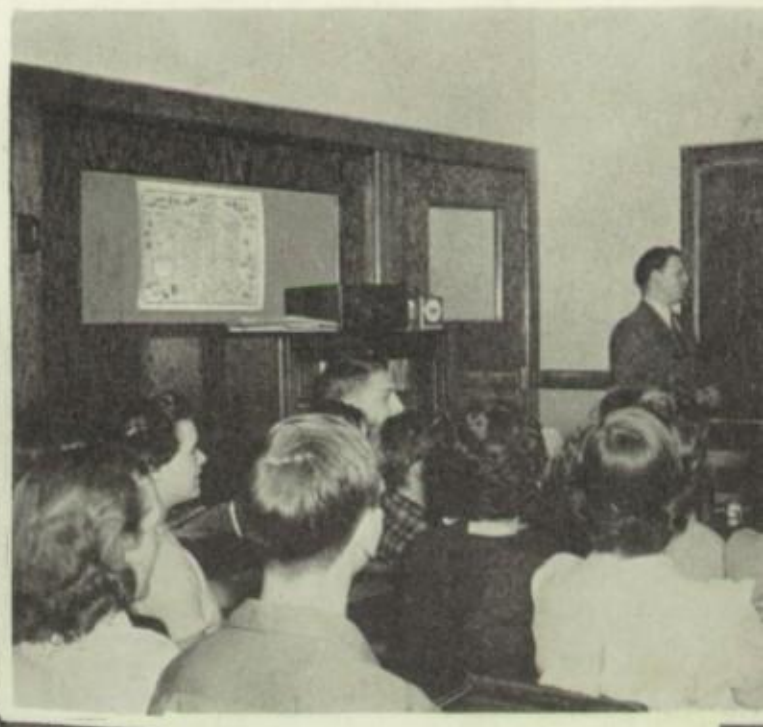
OUR ALMA MATER ISSUE



MID THE HILLS OF ONONDAGA,

ARCHED AGAINST THE HEAVENS BLUE.

WE HONOR

Mrs. Mary A. Austin

We, the Junior Class of 1951, gratefully dedicate this Oracle to Mrs. Mary A. Austin. For the past thirteen and one-half years we have met Mrs. Austin in our English Department and her fine work with the Dramatics Club.

May we, therefore, express our regard for you, Mrs. Austin, through the hope that your winning personality and understanding spirit may aid you in securing that which all seek in life—success and happiness.

STANDS OUR NOBLE ALMA MATER

L. to R.: Fred Hollenbeck, Norbert Finkler, Francis Foley, Earle Ketchum, Albert Walburger, Arthur Goodwin, William R. Padget.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

At the annual school district meeting in July, the following board members were re-elected: Arthur G. Goodwin and Fred S. Hollenbeck. The newly elected member was Norbert J. Finkler.

In addition to its regular duties, the Board of Education is also engaged in planning for the construction of a new Industrial Arts and Agriculture building.

The officers of the Board are Earle H. Ketcham, president; Fred S. Hollenbeck, clerk; Mrs. Florence Eades, treasurer; Dr. Marcus Richards, school physician; Dr. Francis Nurenberg, school dentist; Leon S. Baldwin, attendance officer and school census enumerator; William Bugby, school tax collector.

We would like to express our appreciation to the Board for their untiring efforts in making our school a better school and for their part in making possible the publication of this book.

SENIOR HISTORY

As we started on the path of education, there were seven of us who continued together all the way through school. Namely: Janet Kinne, Clifford Brenchley, Stan Banner, Dick Green, Janet Usher, and Dave White. Others joined us, some of whom remained, while the rest left the trail, and finally we ended our journey with a total of twenty-three seniors. We found a variety of money-making activities along the way. The profits of these adventures were to be used to further our primary aim—a Senior trip to New York City.

The first of these successful projects commenced in our Junior Class with the magazine contest. Then came dances, paper drives, food sales, and the Oracle. Of course, our Junior Prom was one of the main events of that year. "Secret Garden" was its theme and Jack Kriescher furnished the music. At the Prom we used for the first time the gift from the Class of 1950—a crystal ball, which nicely added to our colorful decorations.

We began our Senior year by electing Dick Green as president; Janet Usher, vice-president; Sharon Herlihy, secretary; and Dave White, treasurer. Advising us through this year were Mrs. Austin, Mr. Owens, and Mr. Allen. Our goal for the trip was set at $1500 and we started immediately toward attaining it. The first activity was selling refreshments at the football games. Soon after this we started selling candy bars during noon hours and at basketball games. On January 26, we held our Senior Dance, "The Cinderella Ball." Dick Meddaugh's orchestra set the pace for dancing and it certainly was a gala affair. Continuing these activities, dances, paper drives, and class dues, we finally reached our goal and on May 31 left for New York. As the school year closed, we regretfully bade farewell to our fellow students and to our teachers who helped us progress through those Halls of Learning and adhere to our goal "We'll find a path or make one."

CLASS PROPHECY

A few days ago, quite by accident, we stumbled upon a Post Standard, dated June 2, 1961. As we glanced through it, merely for amusement, the main headline seemed to demand our attention. "Rocketship Reaches Moon," it screamed. Then came, "A clever genius, Stan Banner, has just completed the first flight to another planet. With him was that talented fashion expert, Elinor Tracy, determined to examine the garments of moon-men."

Scanning the features of local interest, we saw, "After her picture appeared in a series of Golden Guernsey Milk advertisements, Dolores Devine was voted the most popular model in U.S.A." "Now an admiral in the WAVES, Janet Kinne is madly in love with a machinist's mate. The entire Navy awaits their marriage." "Leona Compton, a superior photographer for a leading magazine received an award for her pictorial review of that fearless and crafty game hunter, Dick Krom." "Our own Barbara Seeley has acquired a pair of red flannel outlets down South." "While interviewing the wife of the President recently, Pat Kinney, our star reporter, discovered an old school chum. The First Lady's maiden name is Marian Henderson." "Baker Drake, a successful rancher in Arizona, has a valuable herd consisting of only three—one cow, and old horse, and an oil well."

Advertisements throughout the paper certified that "although Bud Long was once a carefree guy, he is now a serious minded magnate in the fertilizer industry."

On the society page we saw, "A fabulous star, Sharon Herlihy shines in that vast heaven known as Broadway." The forthcoming marriage of Carol Carlton, accomplished artist, was announced. "Her fiance is a wealthy plantation owner from Louisiana." "Leaving her life as a socialite, Karol Kirby will manage a huge construction firm to help hubby support their four sets of twins."

Under "Sports," we noticed, "Named Mr. Basketball of 1970, on Davey Venton's television show last night, was the famous athlete, Dick Green."

In the "Want Ads" appeared, "While Betty Seeley climbs mountains in Tibet, Ellen Cook loafs in Hawaii. Wanted—baby sitters so that the husbands can enjoy life, too." "Wanted—a zoo; Clifford Brenchely wishes to become a zoo keeper, since his new wife, Irene Briggs, simply adores animals."

We found only four comic strips in the comic section, all drawn by the same person—Dick Hoefer. They were titled "Joe's Poll, Ooka," "Winnie's Wrinkles," "Saloon Mullins," and "Smirkin Mack."

A page of photographs caught our eye. One picture of a happily smiling couple was captioned "A chap named Jim Foley has become the political boss of Chicago, which greatly pleases Janet Usher, his better half." Under another illustration was "That skillful fire-fighter, Donald Doody, heroically risked his life to save a burning school house today. His flame, Doris Smith, was teaching in the building at the time." Dave White, an ingenious secret agent of the F.B.I. was shown investigating the theft of the Magnifilence Emerald from Howard Hallenbeck, the millionaire zipper tycoon.

Without warning, the unique newspaper that foretold our position ten years hence mysteriously disappeared. But it really didn't matter; naturally, we cannot believe that fantastic material. Certainly none of it is true—or is it?

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, of the Senior Class of Tully Central School, County of Onondaga, State of New York, being of sound mind and body, hereby publish our last will and testament. To Mr. Page and the faculty, our undying gratitude for patience in helping us find the road to success. To Mrs. Austin and Messrs. Owens and Allen, our deepest appreciation for cooperation and advice. To the Freshmen, we leave a bit of advice. Don't grow up too soon. You'll miss a lot of fun. To the Sophomores, we leave our ability to work as a team. You get more done that way. Last but not least, we leave the following tokens of appreciation to the members of the Junior Class. Janet Kinne bequeaths Carolyn Herold instructions on how to get and keep a steady boyfriend. To Ruth Evans, Howard Hallenbeck leaves his "magic" brush. Who knows, you might become the world's greatest artist. Dot Devine leaves her dignity to Betty Aungier. You know, Seniors must be dignified. To Jane Brenchley, Sharon Herlihy bequeaths her Cortland fellows. You won't be lonesome after Bud is gone. Dick Green wills his position on the basketball team to Curt Parcells. Carol Carlton leaves her secret of being good-natured to Paula Kirby. Don't ever lose it, Paula. Janet Usher leaves her clarinet book to Janet Beardsley. One catch Janet, you have to practice! Ellen Cook leaves her ability to study and enjoy it to Alma McCormick. To Raymond Bogart, Leona Compton leaves her ability to have a good time. Remember Ray, all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy. Jim Foley leaves his powerful bass voice to Bob James. Bud Long wills his ability to make noise to Ralph Carlton. It pays to be heard as well as seen, Ralph. Stanley Banner leaves his "just-as-good-as-new" 1925 auto to Phil Mickelson. Now you'll be able to see Lucille more often. To Carlton Wells, Dave White leaves the book "How to Crack a Joke in Ten Easy Lessons." Betty Seeley leaves Mary Monaghan some of her shortness. That is if you, in turn, will leave her some of your height. To John McDonough, Clifford Brenchley leaves his remarkable "way with the wimmen." Baker Drake bequeaths his ability to be quiet to Douglas Scott. Patricia Kinney leaves Barbara Baker her date-book for entertainment. To Bill Emerson, Dick Hoefer wills his habit of attending school everyday. Seniors must be present, Bill. Irene Briggs leaves her jitterbugging talent to Helma Bogner. Marian Henderson leaves her ferocious temper to Donald Whittemore. Meekness doesn't always pay, Don. Karol Kirby leaves her strict classroom attention to Roy Drake. To Edith Seeley, Elinor Tracy leaves her originality in writing compositions. Barbara Seeley leaves her pleasing manner and wide smile to Helen Stevens. In witness thereof, we hereto subscribe our name and affix our seal, this twelfth day of March, Nineteen hundred and fifty-one.

Standing: William Emerson, Philip Mickelson, Robert James, Ralph Carlton, Roy Drake. Seated: Janet Beardsley, Carolyn Herold, Ruth Evans, Alma McCormick, Barbara Baker, Helma Bogner.

The Class of 1952 started its activities this year by electing Phil Mickelson, president; Carolyn Herold, vice-president; Betty Aungier, secretary; and Jane Brenchley, treasurer. Mrs. Buzard, Mr. Wing, and Mr. Ferguson acted as our advisors.

Our first big financial activity of the year was the annual magazine contest, in which we failed to reach our set goal, but nevertheless put $370.05 in our treasury and had a pleasant time being salesmen. Fifteen members of the class earned salesmanship recognization by selling thirty dollars or more of subscriptions.

A dance and two paper drives proved to be successful, especially the last paper drive which brought us $100.63. About the middle of the year our biggest activity got under way—publishing the Oracle.

The members of the Oracle staff were selected by a nominating committee and presented at a class meeting. The majority of the class accepted the staff as presented. Betty Aungier automatically became business manager, as she sold the largest number of magazine subscriptions in the annual magazine contest sponsored by the Curtis Publishing Company. This was a new experience and although it was a lot of work, we really enjoyed it.

We would like to acknowledge the appreciated help of all those who participated in making this Oracle possible and especially to the advisors for their guidance, to those Juniors and Seniors who helped with the typing and to Mr. Conrad Kolbe and Mr. H. B. Allen for their photographic assistance.

ADVISOR AND OFFICERS

Standing: Mrs. Austin, Advisor; Davey Venton, President; Janet Usher, Vice-President; Marian Henderson, Treasurer. Absent: Janet Kinne, Second Semester President; Dolores Devine, Historian.

Twenty-five members of Tulcendra organized last fall under the direction of Mrs. Austin and elected the following officers: President, Davey Venton: Vice-President, Marian Henderson: Secretary-Treasurer, Janet Usher: Historian, Martha Rindge.

During the first semester, the nineteen new candidates assisted with many grade programs, and handled the make-up and lighting for all shows. In December, Tulcendra played host to the Fayetteville dramatic club when they presented "The Valiant" for a student assembly.

Tulcendra, under its new advisor, Miss Miller, elected Janet Kinne, President: and Dolores Devine, Historian for the second semester. The final activity of the organization will be the annual initiation and Dramatics Club Picnic.

TULCENDRA

DRAMATIC CLUB PLAY

"Our Miss Brooks," the three-act comedy that Tulcendra presented on May 25 and 26, 1951 was an excellent performance. We congratulate an able director, a praiseworthy cast and a crew of good sports, whose aid backstage helped to bring success.

The famous trouble-getting-into English teacher, Miss Brooks, was effectively portrayed by Janet Usher. Carol Carlton was Mrs. Allen, the harsh member of the school board and doting mother. Jane (Irene Briggs) the teen-ager who is in love with Ted (Phil Mickelson), the school's top basketball star. The coach (David White), while completely unaware of the fact, captured Miss Brook's heart. Dick Green interpreted the role of Mr. Wadsworth, the principal.

The entire production was delightfully impressive and provided unique comedy.

Standing: D. White, Miss Miller, Director; R. Green. Seated: C. Carlton, J. Usher, I. Briggs.

BAND

The forty-five members of the Band appeared in several school programs, in the Memorial Day Parade, and played at the prize speaking contest. Richard Hoefer, Richard Green, Irene Briggs and Janet Usher represented TCS in the All-State Sectionals at Newark, N. Y. These people and Marilyn Brown gained membership in the All-County Band by auditions. Solo and ensemble work has been stressed this year with the younger members of the organization, such as the Flute Trio, Brass Sextet and the Clarinet Quartet. The annual spring concert was the highlight of the year.

CHORUS

The first appearance of the Senior Chorus was participation in the Annual Christmas Program. Before this, a representative group including D. Devine, J. Kinne, D. Venton, G. Venton, J. Foley, and P. Mickelson, attended the All-State Music Sectional Chorus at Newark, N. Y. These people, plus S. Herlihy, C. Carlton, and R. Hoefer, sang with the All-County Chorus. In addition to the Annual Spring Music Concert, the group hopes to repeat their three-school concert tour which proved successful and to participate in local commencement exercises.

JUNIOR-SENIOR SPEECH

Tully's Fifteenth Annual Junior-Senior Speaking Contest was held in the auditorium March 13. This activity is an outgrowth of an original composition unit based on individual research. Delores Devine and Ralph Carlton won first prizes, with Betty Aungier and Richard Green receiving the second awards. Professor Hawer W. Scott and Mr. Seymour Payet of Cortland State Teachers' College judged the contest. Mrs. Austin, Mr. Pearse and Mr. Ferguson coached the contestants. Prizes were furnished by the Tully Branch of The Syracuse Trust Company and The Tully Bakery.

Standing: Mrs. Mary Austin, Mr. Claude Ferguson. Seated: Mr. Eugene Pearse, Mr. Merton Moore.

RADIO CLUB

The Radio Club has been very active presenting assembly programs, studying script writing, sound effects, and production Techniques. As a special new school service, they made recordings of dramatic playlets for use in English and Social Studies classes.

PROJECTIONISTS

A volunteer service club, boys and girls of Senior High School, become familiar with operation of school projectors and recorders, being available throughout the year to handle projection of films for classroom and assembly gatherings.

Standing: J. Brenchley, L. Long, J. Kinnie, M. Henderson, B. Drake, C. Brenchley, R. James, R. McDonough, R. Drake, J. Padget, C. Wells, R. Moyer, D. Abbott, Mr. Pearse, Advisor. Kneeling: D. Currie, A. Reich, P. Garrett.

Shoemaker.

F. F. A.

The Future Farmers are busy selling popcorn, stationery, and seeds. As usual, delegates will be sent to the state convention and also to the national convention in Kansas City. We have 29 members.

F. H. A.

At the beginning of the year, Mary Monaghan was elected President; Janet Beardsley, Secretary; and Barbara Seeley, Treasurer.

Our big project was packing boxes of clothing and useful articles for needy folks in the United States.

Standing: L. Compton, A. McCormick, M. Henderson, R. Evans, J. Brenchley, B. Baker, B. Aungier, E. Tracy. Seated: H. Stevens, D. Smith, B. Seeley, Mrs. Shenfeld, Advisor; M. Monaghan, J. Beardsley, B. Seeley.

MARSHALS

Thirty-two students served as regular marshals, maintaining a fine record regulating traffic order. The number of tickets for violations was well under last year's total. The marshals are to be commended for their volunteer service work.

STUDENT COURT

The Student Court handled violations reported by Marshals and kept corridor offenses to a record minimum. Organized and conducted by the Student Council Court Committee, it represented democracy in action, as all procedures were effectively handled by students.

Standing: Mr. Pearse. Sitting: Philip Mickelson, Constance Morse, Richard Green, Carolyn Herold, Richard Gardner.

RED CROSS

Other than the holiday favors and menu covers for Veterans' hospitals, our major project is the making and filling of a "Treasure Chest" with school supplies to be sent to a school abroad as a friendship token.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

Seventy-five boys and girls—Library Assistants—serve T.C.S. in a practical way by helping the library function smoothly. The members also benefit individually by the "know how" they acquire through their library experiences.

Standing: E. Aungier, W. Padget, E. Nurenburg, R. Steiger, R. Mickelson, M. Brown, A. Mickelson, J. Padget, R. Moyer, K. VanBuskirk, F. Rainbow, C. Steiger, J. Weisbrodt, J. Bogart, P. Webb, J. When T.C.S. opened its football season last fall, there was a noticeable lack of veteran candidates, but the biggest number of aspirants in years. Being new himself, Coach Clements requested purchase of more practice equipment to handle the size of the squad.

Our record might show that this was a year of experience but our sophomore-studded team played nobly under co-captains Ralph Carlton and Dick Green and field-generals Dave Abbott and Phil Mickelson. Cliff Brenchley, Jim Foley, Dave Venton, Lester Long, Stan Banner, and Ronnie Rycraft made a good account of themselves.

ON THE GRIDIRON

ON THE DIAMOND

As we go to press, there are some twenty-one aspirants out to make the baseball squad which will be cut down to about fifteen. Once again "balance" will have to be the keynote to success as apparent lack of experience prevails. But with the right spirit, plus the will to win, we are looking forward to a bright future.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

At one time during the season coach said, "We might not win them all, but it is a pleasure to work without an established star on the team." This proved to be quite true as T.C.S. had one of the best balanced squads it has had in a long time. It was a squad made up of nine players—and capable ones, too. Each one contributed to a successful season, with the "flu bug" forcing us to withdraw from the county play-offs. We did manage to play one game in the Section III tournament, dropping a ten point decision to Jordan on the Jordan floor.

Familiar faces like Bud Long, Dick Green, Dick Hoefer, Clifford Brenchley, and Jim Foley will be absent from next year's call and we shall miss them. But we do hold high hopes and anticipate a good brand of basketball from Dave Abbott, Curtis Parcells, Roy King, Ralph Carlton, John Currie and the "dark horses" who find themselves in high contention for starting berths.

The team reached its playing peak in the Minoa game, turning the tables for the first time in eight years—but in spirit and sportsmanship—from the season's beginning 'til its end!

JR. VARSITY BASKETBALL

With a new local regulation prohibiting Seniors and Post-grads from playing on the J.V. team, along with most of last season's squad moving up to the varsity, the junior varsity squad was new from the first to the last individual.

Probably the most outstanding feature of the season was the team's ability to come from behind, even in the latter stages of a game, and emerge victorious. A number of thrilling contests ended in this fashion. It was this courageous characteristic more than any other which won the acclaim of all who witnessed the T.C.S. Junior Varsity.

Hats off to Curt Parcells, Tom Fitzpatrick, Ronnie Granger, John Currie, Bill Emerson, Al Miller and Stan Krom for their fine all-around ability.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

This year we had two teams—a Junior Varsity and Varsity—made up of girls in the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades.

We had games with Manlius, Onondaga Central, Marcellus, Jamesville, Fabius, and Lafayette. Although we did not win all the games, we had a good time and enjoyed this very much.

On the J.V. team were Alice Carlton, Anne Foley, Peggy Currie, Anne Staiger, Barbara Baker, Barbara Seeley, Marian Henderson, Carolyn Herold, Shirley Hare, Mary Tracy, and Dolores Devine.

On the Varsity team were Betty Aungier, Janet Usher, Jane Brenchley, Leona Compton, Betty Seeley, Ruth Evans, Janet Beardsley, Sharon Herlihy, Carol Carlton, Edith Seeley, Janet Kinne, and Irene Briggs.

VOLLEY BALL

This year we had volleyball teams which played against other schools. Twenty-five girls from the ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades participated in these games. Everyone seemed to enjoy this very much and perhaps next year we will have better luck and hit the win column.

On the J.V. team were Phyllis Brenchley, Dolores Lancett, Janet McQueen, Mary Tracy, Alice Randall, Eileen Aungier, Marian James, Carolyn Volles, Dorothea Herold, Dolores Holl, Joyce Bolt, Loretta White, and Joan Baker.

On the Varsity squad were Jane Brenchley, Janet Beardsley, Carolyn Herold, Edith Seeley, Janet Kinne, Leona Compton, Barbara Seeley, Alice Carlton, Anne Staiger, Peggy Currie, Anne Foley, and Barbara Baker.
